

CCPA Terms

These Crunchy Data CCPA Terms (“CCPA Terms”) supplement the Crunchy Bridge Terms of Service available at <https://www.crunchybridge.com/terms> or other agreement between you or the entity you represent and Crunchy Data Solutions, Inc. (“Crunchy Data”) governing your use of the Crunchy Bridge Offerings (the “Agreement”) when the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (“CCPA”) applies to your use of the Crunchy Bridge Offering to process “personal information” (as defined in CCPA) that is uploaded to the Services under your Crunchy Bridge accounts (“Personal Information”). Unless otherwise defined in these CCPA Terms, all capitalized terms used in these CCPA Terms will have the meanings given to them in the Agreement.

Crunchy Data agrees and certifies that Crunchy Data will not: (a) retain, use, or disclose Personal Information except as permitted in the Agreement and under CCPA; or (b) sell Personal Information. These CCPA Terms do not limit or reduce any other data privacy commitments Crunchy Data makes to you in the Agreement.
